

Ann Ryan Robertson serves as an arbitrator and advocate in both international and domestic arbitrations. Well-versed in the intricacies of international arbitration, Ann was named 2014 Lawyer of the Year, International Arbitration - Governmental (Houston) by The Best Lawyers in America. Ann is a member of the U.S. delegation to the NAFTA Advisory Committee on Private Commercial Disputes, a Board Member of the American Arbitration Association, a Trustee of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a past member of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) Commission on Arbitration. In addition, for over a decade, she has coached the University of Houston Law Center's Willem C. Vis International Arbitration Moot team.

Ann is also a highly skilled trial attorney with over 30 years of experience representing plaintiffs and defendants in a variety of complex commercial disputes spanning a number of industries including banking and finance, insurance, oil and gas, manufacturing, real estate and automotive.

Ann holds a B.A. from the University of Houston. She also holds a JD and an LL.M. in International Economic Law from the University of Houston Law Center.

