

Bill Buck is general counsel – Upstream Companies for Exxon Mobil Corporation and is based in Houston, Texas. He manages law support for ExxonMobil’s worldwide Upstream (exploration, development, production and related research) Operations and is a member of the ExxonMobil law management committee.

In his 30+ year career with Mobil Corporation and Exxon Mobil Corporation, Mr. Buck has held multiple legal, business and management positions, including counsel, assistant chief attorney, general counsel of Mobil Exploration Norway Inc., North American strategic planning manager, and chief attorney - Production.

He is chairman of the Houston Bar Foundation, which provides financial support for pro bono activities in Houston, and is a member of the Tahirih Justice Center Advisory Council. He is a member of the executive committee and advisory board of the Institute for Energy Law (IEL) and is former chair of the IEL Oil & Gas practice committee.

Mr. Buck earned his BS and JD from the University of Colorado.

